

John N. Giamalis

As a member of the Executive Management Team, John Giamalis is Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Prior to joining Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center in 2011, Mr. Giamalis spent 14 years with The Hartford, serving as a financial executive, where he held the positions of Senior Vice President and Treasurer, and Senior Vice President and Controller. Prior to that, he served as Chief Financial Officer at InteliData Technologies Corp., and at Connecticut National Life Insurance Company. He was also the Director of Corporate Financial Planning at The Travelers.

A Certified Public Accountant, Mr. Giamalis received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Professional Accountancy from West Virginia University, Morgantown.

Mr. Giamalis was a member of the Saint Francis Care, Inc., Board of Directors for 10 years and chaired its Finance Committee for several years. He also served on the Board's Audit and Corporate Compliance Committee, and Compensation and Management Development Committee.

Mr. Giamalis is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, Connecticut Society of CPAs, and the Financial Executive Institute. In addition, he serves on the Connecticut BusinessLINC Steering Committee.

John and his wife, Kelly, reside in Farmington.

Rev. 4-11